REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art discloses a wireless power supply having a form factor equal to a conventional power supply, a DC power generator and a DC/AC converter. However, the prior art fails to show, in combination with the invention, a retrofittable wireless power supply for powering a personal computer such that the retrofittable power supply device is adapted to replace the conventional wired power supply, a self-contained power generation module disposed within the power generation module housing wherein the module has a DC power generator generating power for the personal computer and the generator having liquid catalytic proto exchange membrane module fuel cell and water retention mechanism and the retrofittable is insertable into the framework of the personal computer that is occupied by the conventional wired power supply after removal and the retrofittable power supply replaces the wired power supply device during operation of the personal computer.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Julio C. Gonzalez whose telephone number is (703) 305-1563. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F (8AM-5PM).
